SEC 8 This Act shall take effect from and after its passage

—Some time ago two London thieves put in practice a plan of robbing a jeweler which had been described in a story in a popular periodical—a piece of pure invention The jeweler was furious (he lost $40,000 so it was excusable), and wrote to the editor of the magazine, asking him if it was his mission to instruct thieves in new ways of plundering the public "My dear sir," replied the editor, blandly, "If you had taken in my periodical (which I hope in future you will do), you would have been put upon your guard. This comes of neglecting the claims of Literature"

—Marshal Soult, once showing the pictures he stole in Spain stopped before one and remarked "I value that picture very much, it saved the lives of two estimable persons" An aide-de-camp whispered in the listener's ear "He threatened to have them both shot immediately unless they gave it up"

THE KNOX HOUSE IS A PRIVATE family home on Telegraph avenue, rooms single and en suite, all modern improvements; surrounded by ornamental grounds and children's play yard. A good table is a specialty with the Knox House, terms reasonable. W. B. Edwards, proprietor.

Oakland Evening Tribune

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1876

Served by Carriers. 15 cents per Week

☞ The circulation of the TRIBUNE is double that of any paper published in Alameda county.

TO ADVERTISERS.

For the benefit of the advertising public, we would state, and stand ready to PROVE, that the TRIBUNE has ABOUT DOUBLE, (or nearly THREE TIMES) the bona fide READERS, in Oakland, of any other paper published in this county. Advertisers are the ones benefited, and it is important that they should know these facts. We invite our morning dailies to honorably disprove the above statements. Our subscription books are open to public inspection. Dare the others do likewise?

THE prominent candidates for the Mayoralty are Dr. Pardee, Wallace Everson and W. B. Hardy.

ON the first page of to-day's TRIBUNE will be found a copy of Beazell's substitute for the Ward Bill, which is now pending in the Legislature. It is a good bill—to kill.

IT is rumored on the streets that Perry Johnson will not be candidate for reelection. Mr. Johnson has held the position for several terms, has grown gray in the service, and possibly thinks it is time to retire from official life.

IT is rumored that General Sullivan will shortly step down and out of the News, and that Mr. Fairchild will again assume the management and become the acknowledged director of that dilapidated institution. Any change will be for the better.

THE Transcript this morning, referring to the arrest of P. H. Sumner, says:

> Among his victims is Osborne, of Brooklyn, who paid Sumner $2,500 on account of negotiations for the purchase of Inglewood, near Oakland, California.

The Transcript is familiar with the environs of Oakland. "Inglewood," spoken of by the Transcript, is in Napa county. It is nearer to Oakland than to New York.

ONE of the good results of the mortgage-tax decision will be the refunding by the savings banks of the amount of the tax which they have retained from borrowers. It is said that these sums in the San Francisco banks alone amount to at least one million dollars. The savings banks of San Francisco have agreed to refund all moneys held, less a small per centage to cover the cost of litigation. Savings banks throughout the State will probably follow the example of the city banks, to the delight of the unfortunate borrowers who have been deprived of a portion of their money—some of them for a long time.

IN pursuance to instructions from the Board of Supervisors the County Clerk has advertised for proposals for doing the city printing for one year. The advertisement is ambiguous and unbusiness like. There is no basis furnished upon which to make a calculation for a fair and honorable bid. Those who have done the printing for the past year may be able to estimate the amount of work that will be required under the proposed contract. Instead of lumping the printing as the Clerk's advertisement requires the proposals should have been by the thousand ems of a certain sized type (Nonpariel is the printer's standard) for each insertion. Then in determining the lowest bidder the Board should take into consideration the number of copies which each paper regularly circulates. The value of an advertisement, as every business man knows, depends upon the number of persons to whom it is presented. An advertisement in either of the morning papers of this city is not worth one-third as much as in the columns of the TRIBUNE, because the latter is read by three times as many people as either of them. The Clerk should have been instructed how to prepare an intelligible advertisement and one that will not admit of "shenanigan" as is the case with the one he publishes this morning.

THERE is a large retinue of clerks who do nothing but draw pay.—Transcript.

The reader may think that the Transcript refers to the Custom-house, mint, and other departments of the general Government, but such is not the case, and we hasten to prevent a wrong construction of our cotemporary's language. The Transcript would be the last to object to having "a large retinue of clerks who do nothing but draw pay," attached to the departments referred to, especially so long as its name is on the pay-roll. The Transcript's outburst of virtuous indignation over the "large retinue," etc., refers to the Legislature; it has no bearing upon the general Government whatever. "Drawing pay and doing nothing" assumes a most hideous and thief-like phase when presented in a Democratic garb; but it is a delightful pastime, a virtuous action, when indulged in by Republicans. For a long time the editor of the Transcript was one of those who held a position in the Custom-house and did nothing but draw his pay monthly. His paper was known throughout the State as the subsidized circular of the government officials. Consequently, it had no influence among even the few readers who suffered it to be left upon their doorsteps, and commanded no respect from the press of the State. Finally, the editor became ashamed of the despicable attitude in which he appeared and concluded to remove his allegiance to the Custom-house by slipping the official collar from his neck and putting it around that of his bookkeeper. In doing this he accomplished a feat heretofore unknown in the political history of the country, viz: the holding of a sinecure by proxy. If the Democrats can produce anything to equal this, let them trot it out.

COUNTY PRINTING.

The Board of Supervisors on Monday directed the clerk to advertise for proposals for doing the county advertising for the ensuing year. Heretofore the plan has been to allow three papers in the county the sum of $200 each per annum for publishing the advertisements required by law to be published. This has made the cost of the advertising in the aggregate an item of considerable importance in the expense account of the county. The TRIBUNE a few days ago had an article or two upon this subject showing the absurdity and extravagance of the plan which was being followed, and insisted that instead of doling this mess of patronage out among three or four papers, it should be submitted to competition, and let out to the lowest bidder. The Board of Supervisors at once saw the justice of the demand, and on the first opportunity inaugurated the desirable reform. The object of the Board now should be to get the advertisements before the largest number of people possible for the least money. To accomplish this, bidders should be compelled to furnish reliable evidence as to the actual daily circulation of the papers represented by the several contestants presenting proposals for the printing. This is of as much importance as any condition the Supervisors should prescribe in connection with the bidding. They have the right to known, and it is as much their duty to ascertain the truth in regard to this matter of circulation, as it is for them to stipulate the quality and quantity of material to be used in any kind of public work. As we have said in relation to the publishing of the tax list and the city printing, a paper with a circulation of two or three hundred, like the Transcript and News, can afford to do this public work considerably less than the TRIBUNE with its circulation of more than double that of the two morning papers combined. The Board will unquestionably see that the interests of the people are protected.

ANOTHER VICTORY.

The TRIBUNE has the satisfaction of recording another victory to the county in the interest of the taxpayers, by the letting of city printing by contract. Ever since it flaunted its little 7x9 proportions before this public the TRIBUNE has labored zealously to lessen the burden of taxation by demanding a reduction in the expenses of government. During the past two years there has been a saving of nearly $10,000 per annum effected in the running expenses of this city. This has been brought about through the instrumentality of the TRIBUNE. In saying this, we do not aim to depreciate the services of the worthy gentlemen of the Council who perfected the details of the reforms. But it is safe to say, that if the TRIBUNE had not been in existence the taxpayers of Oakland would to-day be paying the two morning papers four or five thousand dollars for city printing which now costs about $500; they would be paying a Captain of the Police three or four thousand dollars for feeding prisoners which now costs about $1,000; they would also be paying for general and reckless waste in every department of the city government where now there is, comparatively speaking, economy. Then there is the fear and circumspection which a bold and independent journal inspires among evil, designing men, the value of which cannot be estimated in dollars and cents, but which every citizen appreciates who lived in Oakland two years ago when the two morning papers were prostituted to a little ring of politicians, and dared not utter a word against the mal-administration of municipal affairs. The TRIBUNE has cause for self-gratulation in view of its achievements. While it may have made some enemies, it has at the same time, gathered about itself a host of friends who have watched its disinterested course and are convinced of the honesty of its purpose. It has attained an influential prominence never before enjoyed by a paper in Oakland; and it ever intends to maintain its present proud and prosperous position.

THE most conspicuous financial ass in the United States is the long-eared party at the head of the Minting Department—his other name we believe is Lindermann. This individual has a very unpleasant way of obtruding himself upon the public vision on the least provocation and without premonition. At the time of the panic Lindermann endeavored to assist the disturbance by placing certain technical restrictions upon the Mint of San Francisco, but La Grange entirely disregarded the orders of the old fossil and materially aided in checking the panic. For this commendable conduct Lindermann endeavored to secure the General's removal, but without success. Now the "Director of all the Mints" launches out an opinion regarding the silver redundancy on this coast, and presents a plan for a remedy which only gives prominence to his total ignorance in regard to financial matters. He advises everybody to refuse to accept more than $5 in silver! This old man Lindermann has laid around Mints so long that he is thoroughly saturated with the precious metals, but he don't know, and never did know, anything about the science of finance. The best use that could be made of him would be to smelt him, and get what gold and silver his anatomy has accumulated, and throw the dross and base metal away.

SENATOR LAINE is apprehensive of the establishment of a titled nobility in this country. Probably because he fears his kind will then be left out in the cold, as they now are by the untitled nobility.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF LIFE? Gold cannot measure it. Yet when menaced by a violent cough or cold, or any disease leading to consumption, a single dollar invested in Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will unquestionably preserve it.

THE KINDNESS DISPLAYED TOWARD ME by the citizens of Oakland when, after a very short, but unsuccessful canvass, they gave me so respectable a vote for the humble office of Justice of the Peace, in October last, inspires me with a purpose to appeal to their generosity again, and this time I trust successfully. In this spirit I promise that, if they will elect me to the office of Police Judge on the first Monday of March next, I will discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and with my best ability.

SOMETHING NEW!
CHURCHMAN'S
IMPERIAL Baking Powder.

THE PUREST AND BEST.

THIS POWDER IS THE RESULT OF EXTENDED scientific experiments, supplemented by the most thorough practical tests. Hence, its unrivaled excellence and consequent popularity. The attention of dealers, as well as of consumers, is called to the following summary of its merits:

1. It is composed of the best and purest materials, containing neither alum, crude argol, chalk, terra alba, carbonate of ammonia, nor any other of the unwholesome adulterants in common use among unscrupulous manufacturers for cheapening the production of Baking Powder.

2. Its chemical constituents, unlike those of most other Baking Powders, are such as enter into the structure of the physical organism, thereby promoting health and strength instead of clogging the system with inert substances.

3. Its elements are scientifically proportioned and thoroughly incorporated, the most approved steam machinery being used for the latter purpose—that perfect neutralization of the chemicals is secured, and hence no free soda or other alkali is left in the articles of food leavened by it.

4. It will not discolor the whitest flour or other ingredient nor impair the most delicate flavor.

5. It is unexcelled in quality, efficiency, and economy when properly used in connection with good flour and like ingredients.

6. It securely protected from moisture by enclosure in a suitable receptacle, as a bottle or tin cannister, it will remain good for any length of time.

Rationale of Baking Powder.

In the employment of Baking Powder, or any equivalent thereof, the carbonic acid gas set free by chemical reaction upon its constituents in a state of solution, is the direct agent of levitation, and the purer the chemicals the more rapid is the liberation of this gas, therefore, the grand secret of success with a strictly pure Powder like the "Imperial," will be found to be in a prompt utilization of the leavening gas before its escape from the dough or other mass in which it is generated. Failures arising from ignorance or neglect of this essential principle, are not justly chargeable to imperfection in the Powder used.

OAKLAND
CITY DIRECTORY.
Work has Commenced on our New
City Directory of Oakland,
INCLUDING
ALAMEDA AND BROOKLYN,
FOR 1876.

The work will be issued at an early date in the style of the San Francisco City Directory. It will contain a complete list of names, occupation and residence of adult population, a classified business directory, street and avenue guide, city and county officials, courts, societies, etc. It will also contain an accurate historical sketch of the city, with description of churches, colleges and public institution, and a review of the manufactures, trade and commerce of the year, forming a handsome octavo volume of 500 pages. It is designed to be the most complete and comprehensive Directory of Oakland yet issued.

The patronage of business men is respectfully solicited, as it will be an excellent and permanent medium for advertising.

BERKELEY REAL ESTATE
AND Waterworks Company.

THIS COMPANY IS ORGANIZED for three main purposes. First: The purchase and improvement of 240 acres of land near the State University. Second: The immediate construction on a portion of said land of a first class hotel, with numerous cottages and villas, and Third: The construction of water works of such a character as will secure a sufficiency of water for the wants of Berkeley for many years to come.

The site of the land is extremely picturesque and charming. The property contains within itself the invaluable water privileges which are necessary for the water works; one reservoir alone will have a capacity of one hundred and fifty millions of gallons, principally fed from the Cordonices Creek.

The Company is organized with 5,000 shares of $100 each, payable in installments of FIVE DOLLARS per share per month.

The names of the Directors are a sufficient guarantee that the affairs of the Company will be judiciously and efficiently conducted.

Shares can be had on application to the Secretary or any of the Directors. Buy them. They will prove a splendid investment.

Democratic—A Mistake.

Our attention has been called to an advertisement, in an obscure publication, calling a meeting of the Oakland Democratic Club, to be held at the Academy of Music tomorrow (Thursday) evening. Now there must be some mistake about this, as the Oakland Grove of Druids is to hold a grand ball at the Academy of Music to-morrow evening.

PHYSICIANS ARE PRESCRIBING Noble Whisky to their patients, with directions to fill at R. McCrum & Co's, corner Twelfth and Broadway.

Industrial School Needed.

Our city prison is now filled with boys in age ranging from ten to eighteen years, and for months past the prison has not been free from their presence. They are getting to be very expensive—in fact, it would not be much above the mark to say that it costs the city more money to maintain this class of criminals than all other classes combined—and they ought to be put to work. Give us an Industrial School or Work House, where these young hoodlums and thieves may be put to work picking oakum, making willow baskets, or something of the kind, or empower the city authorities to bind them out to learn some useful trade. The matter is worthy the serious attention of the City Fathers.

Messrs. Dunham & Lathrop's New Photographic Art Gallery, at No. 1157 Broadway, west side, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, near the City Hall, is now open to the public. This is the only photographic establishment on the Pacific Coast, fitted up in first-class style, where everything is on the ground floor, altogether dispensing with an "elevator" or stairs. Every style of work known in the business is here executed in admirable style, including the new promenade and gray vignettes. Special attention given to children's pictures, locket work, copying and enlarging. View work will also receive special attention. Terms always reasonable.

REMEMBER THE "ARLINGTON."

In Memoriam.

The Committee of the Association of California Pioneers appointed to draft suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of the late J. Ross Browne and expressive of the sentiments of the Association on the subject, submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

The Committee appointed to prepare suitable obituary resolutions commemorative of the life and services of our late fellow-member, J. Ross Browne, who, after a very brief illness, died in Oakland, December 7th, 1875, herewith respectfully report, that in this instance, the Committee have not deemed it necessary to preface the resolutions with any biographical sketch of the deceased, as he was so well known throughout the State and nation, and his fame as a writer, diplomat and tourist, so widespread, such brief mention of his life and labors as might be given here, would add but little to what is not already generally known; and besides, the history of the deceased has been very elaborately given by the Rev. Mr. Hamilton of Oakland, in a memorial sermon delivered in his Church on Sunday, the 19th day of December last, a printed copy of which is now on file in the archives of this Society. We have therefore, only to submit for your adoption, the following resolutions:

Resolved, That while we deeply deplore the irreparable loss to society of so good a man, to the literature of the country of so genial an author, and to the public at large of an officer so pure and incorruptible, we yet derive consolation from the reflection that his mission of life was faithfully fulfilled, and its high and multiform duties, whether public or private, punctiliously discharged, so that, when the great summons came, he was prepared to meet and answer it, and, departing, left behind him a name and fame of which the entire country, but especially California, his adopted State, may well be proud.

Resolved, That we extend to his bereaved and afflicted family the sincere and heartfelt condolence of the Society of California Pioneers, of which he was a highly esteemed and greatly honored member; and that we fervently commend them to the tender care and loving protection of Him "who doeth all things well."

Resolved, That the preamble and resolutions be spread upon the records of this Society, and a copy of the same transmitted by the Secretary to the sorrowing family of our deceased fellow-Pioneer—J. Ross Browne.

The Storm—Rainfall.

The storm which set in on Monday has been the most severe, not only here and along the coast, but in the interior valleys and on the mountains, known for years, the rainfall and duration and velocity of the wind exceeding those of the heavy storm two weeks ago. It is cloudy at Portland, San Diego and Salt Lake, with the barometer falling rapidly, at the first named place. The Sacramento river was higher last night than it has been for three years, and was rising rapidly at Red Bluff and other points north. At a late hour last night it was raining heavily at Sacramento, Red Bluff, Chico, Redding and Calistoga, as well as here in Oakland and San Francisco. This is the great storm predicted by the Signal Service Department about ten days ago, and which was expected some days sooner. The rainfall in this city was unusually heavy for the time. Up to 7 o'clock this morning Hutchison's Bay Nursery rain gauge registered three inches and four-tenths, most of which fell yesterday. The fall from 7 to 11 to-day would increase the amount to about three inches and a half—giving a total fall for the season of twenty inches and 93-100. This is within six-tenths of an inch of the total rainfall for the whole of last season.

Expeditious—Very.

Communication has been reopened between Broadway and West Oakland, and yesterday advices were received from the latter point as late as the 13th of January last. The particular evidence of the resumption of mail communication between the points named was a postal card which arrived here yesterday only twenty-seven days out from Oakland Point. The distance is about ninety-five thousand and forty inches, seven thousand nine hundred and twenty feet, two thousand six hundred and forty yards, four hundred and eighty rods, or one mile and a half. Wonders will never cease, even in these days of lightning and steam. Just think of it and marvel! A postal card hurled through space at the rate of one inch every twenty-seven seconds, a foot in three minutes and three-quarters, a yard in a little less than a quarter of an hour, a rod in an hour and twenty minutes, or a mile a month! Oh, snail! thy occupation's gone.

Berkeley Items.

The Committee from the classes on base ball met yesterday.

There was no drill yesterday on account of the bad weather.

Yesterday was an exceedingly stormy day, raining and blowing fearfully.

The February number of the Berkeleyan will be issued the latter part of this week.

The meeting of the Durant Rhetorical Society has been postponed until next Tuesday.

The entertainment and the Berkeley Chapel has also been postponed on account of the weather.

CHILDREN MUST HAVE CANDY! Its their second nature. One hundred pounds of our celebrated Broken Candy sold daily.

BURNS, WHITTMAN & GARDINER sell the magic knife polisher at the corner of Tenth street and Broadway.

The Eclectic Medical Society.

The fifth regular meeting of the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of California met pursuant to adjournment, at the residence of Dr. Charles F. Draper, Secretary, on Washington street, Oakland, yesterday. A large number of Fellows were present from different parts of the State. Many very interesting and valuable papers were read before the Society on the subject of medicines and surgery. Lively, but friendly discussions followed each article. At 6 o'clock P. M. the Society adjourned to meet again on the second Tuesday in May next.

High Tides.

The tide rose to a prodigious hight yesterday and to-day, overflowing the encinal and a good deal of ground down in the vicinity of the railroad shops. This morning the flume-sewer west of Adeline street was carried away.

The Conference.

The Bay Conference of the Congregational Churches was held at Hayward on Monday, yesterday and last evening, and the consequence was the town was crowded with people, and the capacity of the hotels was insufficient to accommodate all who applied.

WHITENING.—Best and cheapest place to get your whitening done is at J. E. How's, corner Ninth and Broadway, opposite Union Bank. Also, sign painting, paints, oil, etc.

CROWDED COLUMNS.

The Best Evidence of the "Tribune's" Prosperity—Superior Advantages Afforded its Advertising Patrons.

Owing to the large increase of the TRIBUNE'S advertising patronage, which has taxed its columns to their greatest capacity, we are unable (at the present time) to insert the amount of news matter we wish to lay before its readers. We have increased the size of our sheet to the reasonable limit, and as a further increase is well-nigh impossible we shall soon be compelled to condense everything in order to provide room for all. To make a newspaper valuable to advertisers there are

TWO GREAT ESSENTIALS

To be acquired—first, to secure a large circulation, and secondly, after having obtained the circulation to present every item of news, and make the paper so interesting that its readers will not lay it aside until every line is perused, and to have every word truthful and correct as far it is possible in the hurry of collecting news matters, so that implicit reliance may be placed upon all its assertions. When this is accomplished by any newspaper, then it has reached that point where it is of appreciable

VALUE TO ADVERTISERS.

The TRIBUNE has secured and will retain and increase the circulation requisite, but in our endeavors to give full and detailed accounts of all matters of interest to its many readers, we are hampered by the great mass of advertisments demanding room and display, therefore we feel constrained to establish the rule that all advertisements will be subject to omission from our columns upon any special occasion. In this matter we shall use discretion, and not permit any advertisements to be left out twice in succession. All sagacious advertisers will readily perceive that this occasional omission will

NOT LESSEN THE VALUE

Of their insertions but enhance it, as the paper will be more eagerly sought for and fully read.

Damage to Shipping.

The storm yesterday made it very lively for shipping in the bay—that is on the San Francisco side—and that outside or about the Heads. The ship Itasca, which made two attempts to put to sea, was compelled to return both times, and the steamer Los Angeles and two schooners for southern ports were compelled to return. The pilot boat Allen was badly stove in and nearly filled with water off the Heads, and was compelled to put back. While the shipping on the Oakland side of the bay rode securely, that on the San Francisco side suffered considerably. The British ship Niagara, which lay out at the Rolling Mills, was badly damaged and carried the wharf almost completely away. The ship was damaged around the fore channels, and portions of the wharf came floating down toward the city in the afternoon. The ship was finally pulled out to a place of safety. At Harrison street the bark Battle Axe and the Vernon were chafed against the wharf. Under front street the barge used by the United States Shipping Commissioner, which has been tried under the wharf, was badly stove.

Brooklyn Literary Society.

This very interesting social, musical and literary association will hold a regular meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, East Oakland, this (Wednesday) evening. The question for debate this evening is the declaration embraced in a resolution that "the boys of the present time are as good as those of the last generation." A great deal of interest is taken in the meetings of this society, to which the public enjoys a standing and cordial invitation, and that a vast amount of information and amusement is to be had at them is attested by the fact that the outside auditors have grown from a few curious idlers to a compact mass of the most fashionable and intelligent people of East Oakland.

Local Legislation.

A dispatch from Sacramento says that the Assembly Committee on Hospitals yesterday reported that they had found the management of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum to be excellent, and recommended liberal action toward the institution, and that the employment there of the best skilled oculists and aurists be encouraged. A bill passed the Assembly yesterday authorizing the Trustees of the First Congregational Religious Society of this city to convey certain real estate, and a bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Gibbons authorizing the city of Oakland to construct a main sewer. The latter bill was referred to the Alameda delegation.

MOUNT DIABLO.

"Demijohn" Moves On—The Little Brown Hand—A Shot—Moraga Valley and its Inhabitants—Ignacio Valley—The Town of Lafayette, its People and their Language—"Demijohn" is Mistaken for a "Chronicle" Horse—Ichabod Imbibes Some "Shepherd's Delight," Etc.

After making a short noon at the Piker's, on the day I set out for Mount Diablo, I woke up old "Demijohn" and set out, fully resolved to do something towards retrieving that first day's travel, if I had to level down some of his big bones even with his hide. But the old rascal seemed to be suspicious that something was up, and improved his pace most wonderfully. A short distance, and I arrived where there was stretched directly across the road what seemed to be an old-fashioned well-sweep. This proved to be a toll-gate, where I was to pay fifteen cents, but for what I could not clearly comprehend. I have always regarded toll-gates as institutions belonging to highways which were kept up in more than ordinary state of improvement, but here was toll demanded upon an ordinary thoroughfare, and one no better than a citizen of any country ought to have for his accommodation in traveling from place to place. In fact, much of it seemed to be but a natural track caused by public travel.

YUM! YUM!

But let no one suppose I grumbled about paying that fifteen cents. Not I. On the contrary, under exactly the same circumstances, I'd have toll collected upon every mile of that road. When I saw a small brown hand reach up and pull the string that let the gate poll tip gracefully up for me to pass under, and beheld a maiden—plump as any quail stand smilingly waiting for me to ride close to her and pay the toll—Oh, good gracious!

"Lift the gates as high as the sky,
And let King George and his army pass by!"

But this little game we used to play when we were boys and girls, charming as it used to be, would have been tame compared to that pleasing episode, if I could have been permitted to have ended the latter as the former was always expected to be ended, which you know was in paying toll by kissing the gate tender.

A SHOT.

A few rods on from the toll-gate, I fired my pistol at a rabbit which was sitting demurely in a thicket by the road side, but I only succeeded in startling "Demijohn" and causing him to stumble onto his knees, while the rabbit still sat, looking as profound and wise as a Democratic Committeeman cogitating upon a seal ordinance.

BIG TREES.

On both sides of the way can be seen the stumps of the mammoth redwoods which once flourished in this narrow, sheltered valley. Many of them are from twelve to fifteen feet in diameter. They have been an important source of fuel for many years to inhabitants living near them and to camping parties, and although already chipped away until they are nearly or entirely level with the ground, still, if followed into the ground, they contain many cords of wood apiece.

MORAGA VALLEY.

What is called the Moraga valley comprised the land granted by the Mexican Government to the Moraga family. As near as I can judge, it is about eight miles long by from one-fourth of a mile to two and one-half miles wide. I may be mistaken as to length, however, for "Demijohn" can stretch a mile out to such a length as to completely overthrow one's confidence in the rule of "Long measure" as taught in the arithmetics. The hills inclosing the main portion of the valley are smooth and gently sloping, and tillable to their tops. The soil is adobe, and I should think pretty good for corn, but none the best for wheat. The old original grantee of this valley has long since been "gathered to his Fathers," while his vast estate, comprising three leagues or more, has been "gathered" in by Carpentier. In a little old tumble-down house, situated upon one of the hill-sides, and far back from the road, live two of the heirs to this property, eking out existence in poverty, and engaged in an endless and hopeless litigation to recover what they or their sire foolishly bargained away. All the inhabitants upon this valley pay tribute to Carpentier—from one to three dollars per acre. Not one of them own a foot of the land they till, or can own it, as their great landlord's own title itself is still in dispute. There is no grumbling, however, and all declare that they pay less rent to him than they would be likely to have to pay to any party who held undisputed ownership of the land.

IGNACIO VALLEY—LAFAYETTE.

Passing out of the Moraga valley, and standing upon the top of a low line of hills which form its farther boundry, I thought I never looked upon a more lovely spot than the little round valley into which the road immediately descends. To the right, and winding away to the Northwest, far up into the Ignacio valley—its course plainly marked by its belt of trees—is Walnut Creek. Straight ahead is a little round valley, as level from side to side as a table, and dotted over here and there with neat white farm houses, near the most of which are great clumps of live oaks. A little to the left, with gently rolling hills in the back ground, and almost embowered by shrubbery and natural trees, stands Lafayette—lovely to behold from this distance, but when approached found to be a rickety old dried up town.

TAKEN FOR A "CHRONICLE" REPORTER.

"Demijohn" and I made our advent into this little place about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and, wonderful to say, he still had bottom left. Bravo, "Demijohn!" you shall stand at the watering trough while I dismount and enter the one public house here, and talk with some of the solid inhabitants of the country. Six or eight burly looking fellows were lounging in the bar room, and came out to look us over as we came up. One of them advancing, and laying his hand on my leg, extended the hospitality of the town to me as follows: "Dishmount, stranger'n cume in 'ntakesnffin' withs. We'r' all goo' felrs. Tha's pecoolar lookin' rig youv' got the-there, stranger. Chronicle reporter, ain't ye?" Notwithstanding all I could say to the contrary, every time these men looked at "Demijohn" they would have it that I was a Chronicle reporter.

ICHABOD IMBIBES.

I accepted the invitation to imbibe a little something—didn't know but it might brighten up old "Demijohn" a little. We all went in and the landlord "set 'em up." The fluid was very much the color of a solution of iron. After much shaking of hands and "here's luck" all round, we slung it down. Great powers of Bachus and Belzebub combined! By the time that liquor had reached my stomach I had given up all hope of ever breathing again. The hot tears rushed from my eyes, I thought of all my bad deeds in a single reflection, stood on tip-toe, stretched my neck, gasped, and then rushed for the open air. Reader, if to be hanged produces a sensation that is any approach to what I felt at that instant, and I am ever wanted for that purpose, I'll never be taken alive.

Legislative Proceedings.

SACRAMENTO, February 8.

SENATE.—The Senate met at 11 o'clock P. M., Mr. Tuttle in the Chair.

Authorizing the city of Oakland to construct a main sewer. Referred to the delegation.

Amending the Political Code by striking out all sections relating to taxation on mortgages, in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court.

Amending the Civil Code concerning liens. It authorizes a lien to be given upon stock, and makes a lien upon crops or land until the rents are paid. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Regulating water rates in San Francisco. [Section 1 states that neither the Spring Valley Water Company nor any other company shall charge more than 70 per cent. of rates charged in December last, and that said company shall not have the right to demand more, and providing that the company shall not charge dwelling houses in excess of $3 50 per annum for each room. Section 2 affixes a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each infraction of the jurisdiction in these cases, and one half the fine goes to the complainant.] Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The object of the bill is to test the right of the Legislature to fix rates.

BILLS PASSED.

The Senate passed McGarvey's bill amending section 842 of the Political Code, giving Justices' Courts jurisdiction in cases where debts accrued within their county if defendants have removed into another county.

Also a bill by Gibbons providing that stockholders of foreign corporations doing business in this State shall be liable in like manner to stockholders in corporations formed under the laws of California.

LAINE'S MILITARY BILL.

The bill of Senator Laine, which would make the State militia liable to jury duty, road and poll tax, came up and was considered in Committee of the Whole.

On motion of Mr. Haymond, the bill, along with the resolutions in relation to the Southern Pacific Railroad were made the special order for to-morrow at the head of the file.

Mr. Craig introduced a bill amending the city charter of San Francisco in relation to street work. To the delegation. Adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.—The Assembly was called to order at 10 A. M., Mr. Murphy, Speaker pro tem., in the Chair.

Mr. Briceland, from the Committee on Hospitals, presented a report on their visit to the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum. The Committee commended the appropriate management of this institution, especially the culinary department. They recommend its services to those pupils suffering from blindness. In conclusion the Committee complimented the Superintendent and his assistants on their intelligent methods of instruction.

O'Connell of San Francisco offered a resolution requiring the Controller to submit to the Assembly all vouchers relating to payments appertaining to printing for State officers, and the Legislature laid it over for one day.

Mr. Rice introduced a bill providing for the payment of claims against the city of Santa Cruz, and authorizing a levy of 7 per cent on $100 for that purpose. The rules were suspended and the bill finally passed.

NEW BILLS.

Reorganizing the public school system of the State. Referred to the Committee on Education.

Supplemental to the Act incorporating the Santa Clara Agricultural Society. Referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Requiring payment of premiums to the Fire Departments of incorporated towns and cities by fire insurance companies not organized in California, but doing business here. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

BILLS PASSED.

Amending the law concerning unlawful holding over.

Amending the law relating to the release of attachments on real property.

Authorizing the Trustees of the First Congregational Society of Oakland to convey certain real estate to the township of Oakland.

Amending Section 536 of the Civil Code relating to telegraph corporations.

Providing for the future management of the Napa State Asylum for the Insane.

Abolishing the State Board of Equalization.

Amending the Penal Code relative to bailable offenses.

Amending the Code of Civil Procedure in relation to appeals and administration of small estates.

Amending section 3785 of the Political Code relating to the redemption of property sold for taxes.

Mr. Carson's bill providing for the care and maintenance of inebriates in the city and county of San Francisco came up on its final passage. The author offered an amendment providing that neither the President, Secretary, Treasurer, nor any Trustees of the Home shall receive any fee or emolument. The amendment was accepted and the bill passed.

Mr. Broderick, on behalf of the Sheriff of San Francisco, objected to Senator Pierson's bill regulating Sheriffs' fees in certain counties, and the bill, on motion of Mr. Clarken, was made the special order for Saturday, at 11 o'clock.

Senator Roach's bill to add a new section to the Penal Code, in relation to false weights and measures, was passed.

THE TRAINING-SHIP BILL.

Senator Roach's bill to establish and maintain a training-ship, at San Francisco, at a cost to the city not to exceed $25,000 per annum, came up, with a report from a majority of the delegation favoring its passage. Amendments were adopted providing that instruction in the ship shall be confined to practical seamanship and navigation; that the vessel shall cruise for fifteen days each month; that no boy shall be received on board in commutation of punishment for crime, and that no boy shall be received on board who is under fourteen or over eighteen. Mr. Young offered an additional amendment, to the effect that no boy shall be received on board who has not lived six months previous to his admission in San Francisco, but as the amendment was offered to a section that had been passed upon it was ruled out of order. The previous question was called for, but refused.

Mr. Coffey explained the object of the bill in a long speech and showed how greatly the British navy is benefited by the use of training ships. He was confident when he uttered the sentiments of his constituents when he said that this bill met with their entire approbation, and he appealed to the House to pass the bill.

As it was purely local, Mr. Kennedy opposed the bill, and contended that the appropriation would do better service if applied to an enlargement of the Industrial School.

Mr. Berry said he did not usually oppose local bills, but he regarded every measure with suspicion on which the previous question was demanded with the view of shutting of discussion.

Mr. Coffey, as one of the members who asked for the previous question, explained that he did so not to prevent investigation, but to secure the passage of the bill before the hour of recess.

On reassembling after recess, after various motions to delay action, the bill was passed.

THE HARBOR COMMISSION.

The Harbor Commissioner bill was reported by the Commissioner on Commerce, with amendments, and a motion was made to refer it to the San Francisco delegation. This motion was vigorously opposed, but after a long discussion it was so referred.

Mr. Reddick withdrew his bills for amending section 6 of the Code, and introduced another, which was passed.

Mr. Wilcox's Bank Commissioner bill was again postponed till Friday.

The bill introduced relative to drawing jurors in El Dorado county was passed.

An Act for the repeal of section 300 of the Penal Code, relative to transacting business on Sunday, was passed.

An Act to amend section 1111 of the Civil Code was passed.

An Act to fix the terms of Courts in Modoc was passed.

The House refused to pass the resolution to meet at 10 o'clock instead of 11.

Adjourned.

Real Estate Agents.

Dealers in real estate—buyers and sellers alike—seek reliable agents to transact business for them—agents who would scorn to practice deception to secure a sale or patronage in any shape. There are several old and deservedly popular agencies in this city that we need not recommend to our readers. The new firm of Woodward & Taggart, however, should receive the favorable consideration of all. Mr. Woodward has been in the real estate business in this city for years, and is thoroughly well posted in that line and enjoys the confidence of all. Grant I. Taggart, the junior member of the new firm (successors to E. C. Sessions & Co.), though a new hand at the bellows in the real estate business, is a gentleman well known and popular throughout the State as a man of the strictest integrity and highest business qualifications. His long service as Clerk of the Supreme Court of California, has brought him in contact with most of the leading lawyers, and many of the most prominent business men of the State, and he is one of those genial and upright men who are gifted with the happy faculty of making their friends co-equal in number to their acquaintances. The new firm is located at the office and auction rooms of its predecessor, E. C. Sessions & Co., 460 and 462 Eighth street, Oakland, and is associated with the well-known auction house of Maurice Dore & Co., 326 Pine street, San Francisco—General H. A. Cobb being the auctioneer for both houses.

Juvenile Thieves.

Two little boys, apparently not more than eight or nine years of age, but registering at eleven and twelve years respectively, sons of respectable and well-to do parents, and pupils of one of our public schools, were arrested last evening by Captain Rand and Officers Shorey and Wilson on two charges each for housebreaking and petty larceny. Some days ago they broke into a private residence and stole $139 worth of jewelry, and yesterday they stole a number of chickens. They first attempted to sell the jewelry without explanation, but failing in that they forged an order or permit from the mother of one of the twain, and failing in selling it by that also, they buried the trinkets under a house. The fathers of the two little reprobates appeared when the boys were called up for trial in the Police Court this morning, and at their request and on their promise to use every effort to reclaim the youngsters, Judge Jayne, taking into consideration the additional fact that this was their first offense, allowed the boys to go.

Arrests.

Last evening Captain Rand and officers Shorey and Wilson arrested two little boys for breaking into a house and stealing $139 worth of jewelry, and also for subsequently stealing chickens. Captain Rand and officer Shorey recovered the stolen property. About 9:30 last night officers Shorey and Lufkin captured a young colored man who broke into a house yesterday afternoon and stole a pair of boots. He was in the boots when the officers pulled him. He stands charged with house breaking. Three drunks were arrested last evening and one other this morning.

Morgan, Lieut. B. H. Randolph, Lieut. A. H. Merrill, U. S. A.; 153 recruits for the Eighth U. S. Infantry.

DR. D. PERCY.—THE NUMBER OF people visiting Dr. Percy, the eminent London physician, since his arrival in this city has been truly remarkable; indeed, from 9 o'clock in the morning until late in the evening his rooms are literally crowded, rain or shine. A reporter has called at his rooms a number of times and never yet has he found the Doctor's time unoccupied. It is noteworthy that his visitors are of the elite of the city, and, as a class, intelligent, yet all seem satisfied as to the Doctor's powers. In the treatment of disease he uses no drugs of any kind, and tells everyone to a nicety their disease without asking a question, which health examination is free to all. In appearance the Doctor inspires anything, but distrust, for a more frank, open countenance we never saw. This is probably owing to the fact that he always pays the printer. The Doctor has fortunately secured the elegant apartments formerly occupied by Miss Clara Morris, at 206 KEARNY STREET; entrance, room 11. Dr. Percy is upon a tour of pleasure around the world, stopping only at the largest cities to engage in his business, but is glad to welcome all, who then upon business or not.—Sunday Chronicle.

Caricatures of Washington.

General Washington was inaugurated President at New York in 1789 How often has the world been assured that no dissentient voice was heard on that occasion! The arrival of the General in New York was a pageant which the entire population is supposed to have most heartily approved and a very pleasing spectacle it must have been as seen from the end of the island the vessels decked with flags and streamers and the President's stately barge rowed by thirteen pilots in white uniforms advancing towards the city surrounded and followed by a cloud of small boats to the thunder of great guns But even then it seems, there were a few who looked askance At least one caricature appeared "All the world here," wrote J Armstrong, to the unreconciled Gen Gates "are busy in collecting flowers and sweets of every kind to amuse and delight the President People were asking one another [illegible] by what awe inspiring title the President should be called even plain Roger Sherman of Connecticut regarding His Excellency as beneath the grandeur of the office" Yet says Armstrong "in the midst of this admiration there are skeptics who doubt its propriety and wits who amuse themselves at its extravagance The first will grumble and the last will laugh, and the President should be prepared to meet the attacks of both with firmness and good nature" A caricature has already appeared, called The Entry full of very disloyal and profane allusions

This effort was more ill natured than brilliant but the reader who examines the fugitive publications of that period will often feel that the adulation of the President was such as to provoke and justify severe caricature That adulation was as excessive as it was ill executed and part of the office of caricature is to remind Philip that he is a man Probably the best caricature that appeared during the administration of General Washington was suggested by the removal of the national capital from New York to Philadelphia Senator Robert Morris being a Philadelphian and having large possessions in Philadelphia, was popularly supposed to have procured the passage of the measure and accordingly the portly Senator is seen in the picture carrying off upon his broad shoulders the Federal Hall, the windows of which are crowded with members of both Houses some commending, others cursing, this novel method of removal In the distance is seen the old Paulus Hook ferry house at what is now Jersey City on the roof of which is the devil beckoning to the heavy laden Morris and crying to him "This way Bobby" The removal of the capital was a fruitful theme for the humorists of the day Even then New York politicians had an ill name and Congress was deemed well out of them —[illegible]

◆

An earnest looking stranger entered the Director's office at Detroit the other day and asked how the poor came on and after a little conversation said

"Please name some poor widow who would like a barrel of flour"

"I'll be only too glad" replied the official "Mrs S— would like one"

"Would she?"

"I know she would"

"Well I hope you'll send one up" sighed the stranger as he backed for the door —[illegible]

◆

"And have you no other souvenirs?" asked a curious lady of a bronzed old sea Captain "Oh yes madam I had one that lived in the South Sea Islands for nearly a dozen years"

"Really! Was he liked there and what was his taste—the second kind?"

"No madam he wasn't liked he was meat leastways the missionaries ate him and as for his taste the chief said he tasted of tobacco" The lady walked to another part of the ship and the Captain smiled and took a fresh quid
